Dear Parent/Carer

I hope you and your family had a restful Easter break.

We are now only 28 days away from the first GCSE examination. I would like to reinforce the expectations for Year 11 students.

Breakfast sessions continue to run for many subjects this half term from 8.00 – 8.30 am. These are very valuable additional sessions that we would like to encourage your son/daughter to attend. Mr Hill (Assistant Headteacher) has already communicated the specific breakfast sessions students are invited to attend with you. The sessions being offered are detailed below:

Monday – Sociology
Tuesday – Science
Wednesday – English
Thursday – History
Friday – Maths
All week: Library

Period 6 is compulsory for all Year 11 students from 3.00 pm until 4.00 pm on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday until the end of the examinations. Mr Hill will communicate the subject sessions that your son/daughter will be required to attend on each day. We would really appreciate your continued support by reinforcing the importance of these sessions to fully prepare students for their forthcoming exams and to complete any outstanding coursework where applicable.

Pizza parties, that take place from 4.00 – 5.00 pm on certain days, whilst not compulsory are very valuable for students. During these sessions, further revision and pizza are provided as we appreciate that students may be hungry from their hard work. We therefore strongly encourage students to complete this additional hour of study and participate in the pizza party when it is offered to them.

Should you have any questions regarding the above, please email enquiries@wednesfieldacademy.co.uk or call 01902 558222 and ask to speak to Mrs Beazley (Deputy Headteacher)

Yours faithfully

Mr J Phillips
Acting Headteacher
