Dear Parent/Carer

We are writing to inform you of some small changes to our Classcharts behaviour categories.

Our school values (Respect, Resilience and Pride) are fundamental to Wednesfield Academy and we believe these principles are an integral part of helping develop pupils into successful and confident individuals. Our aim is that pupils demonstrate respectful attitudes, show resilience in all aspects of their schooling and that they take pride in their work.

Our intention is for pupils to understand that everything positive they do can be characterised within these values. Therefore, we will have four broad areas of recognition for teachers to use on our Classcharts system which will be:

- Respect
- Resilience
- Pride
- Meaningful contribution.

Please see the attached page which gives examples of pupils' actions that would fall into these areas. In addition to the above, Heads of House will have access to a small number of categories for positive behaviour requiring more significant and specific recognition.

There will also be small alterations to the negative behaviour categories, by reducing the number of different categories. If you have any question about these changes, please contact Mrs Bingham (Deputy Headteacher) via postbox@wednesfieldacademy.co.uk or call the school on 01902 558222.

Yours faithfully

Mr J Phillips
Headteacher
