Dear Parent/Carer

The Department for Education (DfE) mandates the delivery guidance for Relationships, Sex and Health Education (RSHE). This along with other important areas such as RE and Careers, forms part of our Personal Development curriculum. This is integrated across all key stages through assemblies, form time activities, curriculum days and PSHE lessons.

For detailed information regarding our RSHE Policy and an overview of the provision for each year group, please visit our website: Policies - Wednesfield Academy This content is essential and plays a significant role in our school's provision. DfE parental guidance can also be accessed here:

In addition to our curriculum, we also welcome visitors and guest speakers to enrich the program further. If you as a parent have any feedback, questions or concerns about our policy or program please do not hesitate to contact us at postbox@wednesfieldacademy.co.uk.

Furthermore, you can explore various aspects of our personal development initiatives at Wednesfield Academy on our website through the following link: Personal Development - Wednesfield Academy.

We strive to cover all statutory topics while adapting to our pupils' needs to ensure our curriculum is up to date, responsive and relevant. We would like to work with you as parents and carers of pupils here at Wednesfield Academy to ensure our curriculum meets the needs of all pupils and so, if you could spare two minutes to complete our survey here, we would be grateful. <https://forms.office.com/e/LgEmhrqTZx>

Yours faithfully

Mr Phillips
Headteacher
