Dear Parent/Carer

Our Personal Development curriculum at Wednesfield meets all statutory guidance and prepares pupils for adult life. This includes Relationships, Sex Education and Health Education (RSHE), Citizenship, Careers and PSHE. The statutory guidance has been updated for RSHE for teaching from September 2026. A link to the guidance can be found here: Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education and Health Education guidance.

Our RSHE Policy (with curriculum overview) is available for families to read on our website: MAT Relationships Sex Health Education Policy 2026 WA.pdf

We greatly value parents' views on our Personal Development Curriculum and recognise the important role that families play in helping us to shape and strengthen our provision. Your feedback will help to inform and shape our planning throughout the academic year, ensuring that the curriculum continues to reflect the needs, interests, and experiences of our pupils, while also continuing to meet all statutory guidance. Once you have read the policy and curriculum overview, please complete the form to share your views and any suggestions you may have.

We also have a dedicated Personal Development page where you can find out more information about our personal development curriculum. An important part of our curriculum is enhancing our provision with expert external speakers – we have included an overview for you and will write home to inform you when pupils are receiving assemblies or workshops about sensitive issues. You will also be able to view materials used for the delivery of RSHE from September onwards via our family portal and information regarding this will be sent home over the coming weeks.

It is important to us at Wednesfield Academy that we take account of our local and school context, and we adapt our curriculum as required to respond to any relevant issues. It is also important that we take account of pupil views and pupil voice is a regular part of the work that we do.

As a result of the changes to the new RSHE guidance, we will also be signposting support for caregivers while discussing RSHE topics at home. These will be shared with you in due course.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Mrs Howells (Assistant Headteacher) via email at postbox@wednesfieldacademy.co.uk or by calling the school on 01902-558222.

Yours faithfully

Mr Phillips
